HALLETT ALSOP BORROWE It is known that Mr. Drayton has had frequent conferences with his law partner, Col. Rowland Hazard, and Mr. John McLane Nash. his counsellor, from the hour he landed in New York Wednesday night.

From excellent sources the information is gleaned that those legal conferences have borne more directly upon proposed measures looking to a severance of his marital ties. Mr. Drayton left Dr. Richard H. Derby's house, 3 East Fortleth street. Dr. Derby is a cousin of Mr. Drayton and between the men there is an uncommonly strong resemblance, Dr. Derby having a slight advantage in point of sentority. Dr. Derby accompanied Mr. Drayton for a block, when the pair separated, Dr. Derby going to his office, 9 East Thirty-fifth street, where an EVENING WORLD reporter met him.
Asked as to Mr. Drayton's movements; Dr

Derby said: "He left me on his way down town, and I think he has gone to his Club, the Union. I am very sure he will not say anything, although he may see you at the Club. What can be say?

· His silence is all that should be looked for from a true gentleman. It is diguified, and Mr. Drayton has not lost an lota of his position in society because of his becoming reticence. His standing is absolucly safe in the community. He does not want to have any controversy, and he will not permit himself to feed the press.

In answer to a query as to the main point in the hypothetical case cited to the Jury of Buonor, Mr. Borrowe replied that "the challenging party (Drayton) had accepted money."
